Randy has been an instructor at music camps and workshops in British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan. Being involved with Shivering Strings Alberta and Calgary's Prairie Mountain Fiddlers, playing for old-time dances, judging contests and organizing fiddle jamborees have given Randy many opportunities to play the musical style he loves so much. Randy has been actively involved with the Alberta Society of Fiddlers since the 1990's. He is the lead singer of a barbershop quartet in High River called the Highwoodshedders who "sing a little, play a little and tell really dumb jokes!" Retired from his carpentry instructor position at SAIT, Randy looks forward to more musical adventures, and will continue to support and enjoy the world of fiddle music wherever he goes. Randy is pleased to be asked back as an instructor at the ASF camp this summer.

Laurie Maetche, Lacombe County AB - Laurie started teaching music privately as a teenager and has been able to mentor hundreds of students over her ongoing career of more than 35 years. Laurie's first student was a neighbour who wanted to learn the violin and it has continued from there with Laurie gaining the skills to teach multiple instruments (violin, viola, cello piano and guitar) and offer group opportunities of a classical orchestra and different levels of fiddle groups. Laurie loves teaching and promoting enthusiasm for music. She encourages others to reach for their potential, and this ensures she has a full teaching studio throughout the year. Having attained a Bachelor of Arts in 2011 with a focus on violin and viola performance, she is now challenging herself to finish her piano performance. Laurie is a Red Deer & District 2020 Woman of Excellence winner in the arts, culture and heritage category. Laurie won the honours for her many achievements, contributing to the community, and finally how she is a role model for other women.

Collaborating with other teachers at different camps and workshops keeps Laurie motivated to do more for her community, her students and herself. She looks forward to instructing at Deer Valley Meadows this summer.
